

Memories of my Life in Ireland

I was born in 1948 in Bandon, Ireland, an only child of Patrick and Kathleen O'Donovan.

In this blog, I will recall many key memories in my life to date, including our first television, the visit of President John F. Kennedy and the visit of the Pope.

I will be adding over the coming months and fast forwarding to 2019.

I copied extracts from news outlets over some months and this listing is in this link
